1. Special Agents Graduation

[] new Special Agents graduated the Special Agents Training Course on 5 August and are currently preparing for assignment. Their graduation marks the 64th presentation of the course, making the course possibly the longest running in the Agency's history. [] commended the Security Education Group on a job well done, expressed his appreciation for the participation of OS personnel in the practice exercises, and gave special thanks to [] for his help and guidance as Special Guest Instructor. [] added that he is very impressed by the new graduates, and he complimented [] on his efforts as the PARC Chairman. []

2.

3. Overseas Benefits

[] was pleased to advise that formal approval of increased compensation for OS personnel assigned overseas has been received. This marks the end of what has been a rather difficult review process. The new benefits package will apply to OS personnel in-place aboard as well as those currently scheduled for assignment. []
